

Independent visits

If you are unable to join one of our scheduled group itineraries we would be delighted to facilitate your needs via an independent itinerary, either side of the conference.

Jump into Ireland
ireland.com

Please let us know your outlets and your areas of interest and we will put together a tailor-made schedule to suit your needs.

One of our New York based team will be in touch shortly to organize your accommodation and transportation for this period and to brief you on story ideas and local highlights to ensure you get maximum value from your trip.

